

Enrol for revised PM crop insurance scheme by July 31, farmers told

Minister of State for Agriculture Dattatray Bharne

Mumbai: The Maharashtra government has rolled out the revised Pradhan Mantri Fasal Bima Yojana (PMFBY) for 2026-27 and urged farmers to enrol before the July 31 deadline to secure coverage against crop losses caused by natural calamities.

Minister of State for Agriculture Dattatray Bharne on Saturday said the scheme covers 14 crops, including paddy, maize, soybean, cotton, sesame, pulses, cereals and onion.

With climate change intensifying risks in agriculture, the insurance scheme is aimed at cushioning farmers against uncertainty and financial losses, Bharne said, urging cultivators to take advantage of the Centre-state initiative.

Farmers will have to pay a premium of two per cent for foodgrains, cereals and oilseeds, while cotton and onion growers will be charged five per cent.

Applications can be filed through the National Crop Insurance Portal, banks, Common Service Centres and self-registration facilities.

The agriculture department said an Agristack enrolment number is mandatory. Farmers must also furnish land ownership records and ensure their Aadhaar is linked to their bank account.

Insured farmers will be required to complete a digital crop survey, with survey details matching the crops registered under the scheme. Any discrepancy could result in denial of benefits.

Farmers cultivating crops on at least 0.10 hectares are eligible for coverage. For assistance, they can contact insurance company representatives, taluka agriculture offices or helpline centres.

Citing forecasts of a possible rainfall deficit and El Niño conditions, Bharne said crop insurance could provide a critical financial buffer in a challenging season.

‘Not merger, welcome individuals willing to fight the BJP’: state Congress group to party high-command

Alok Deshpande
Mumbai, July 4

A SECTION of Maharashtra Congress has conveyed to the party’s central leadership about its opposition to the merger with the Nationalist Congress Party (SP) led by veteran leader and Rajya Sabha MP Sharad Pawar.

Sources within the Congress confirmed to The Indian Express that party state unit chief Harshavardhan Sapkal, when asked about his opinion regarding the merger with the NCP (SP) has voiced against it. Sapkal informed Rahul Gandhi about his opinion that instead of a merger, individual leaders from NCP

(SP) who are dedicated and loyal towards the Opposition should be welcomed. When contacted about this development, Sapkal declined to comment.

For more than a week now, Maharashtra’s political circle is abuzz with the possibility of merger between Congress and NCP-SP led by Sharad Pawar.

Following the six Lok Sabha MPs of Shiv Sena (UBT) rebelled to join ruling Shiv Sena of Eknath Shinde, the pressure is mounting on Opposition NCP-SP which has 8 Lok Sabha MPs may turn out to be a key force in case the center attempts to move important bills in upcoming session of the parliament. Reports of a merger between two parties have been making rounds since then. According to a senior Congress functionary, the opposition to the possible merger is on two to three counts. “First of all, the issue of merger comes up whenever there is a split in other parties. A section of Congress leaders said, “Congress cannot and should not be taken for granted in such a scenario,” he said. He pointed out the recent round of buzz surrounding the merger is after the collapse of Trinamool Congress and Shiv Sena (UBT).

Secondly, the Congress central leadership was told that instead of merger, those who are individually willing to come and work with the party should be welcomed and prioritised. “We are of the opinion that the intent and vigour to fight the BJP is important. What if some unwilling leaders quit after the merger just months before polls? It would be portrayed as a setback to Congress...” another party leader said. Thirdly, the extra-cordial relationship between Pawars and Adani is also one issue that remains unaddressed, pointing out recent incidents where NCP (SP) Lok Sabha MP and Pawar’s daughter, Supriya Sule called Gautam Adani as her elder brother. “Will that stop or continue, in case of a merger?” the leader asked.

Sources said Sapkal was asked about his opinion on merger by Rahul Gandhi where he has clearly opposed the same. Merger talks gained momentum after Rahul Gandhi attended the wedding of Sule’s daughter.
