

All eyes on Lokayukta report after ED action in MUDA case

BALA CHAUHAN @Bengaluru

AFTER the Directorate of Enforcement (ED) attached 142 immovable properties worth ₹ 300 crore on Friday under the Prevention of Money Laundering Act (PMLA) in connection with the MUDA case against Chief Minister Siddaramaiah and others, all eyes are now on the Lokayukta report on the alleged MUDA site allotment scam.

Chief Minister Siddaramaiah

The High Court of Karnataka has directed the Lokayukta Police, probing the alleged scam in which Siddaramaiah and his wife BM Parvathi are accused No 1 and accused No 2, to submit its report by January 27. Siddaramaiah was booked under Sections 9 (bribing public servant by a commercial organisation) and 13 (criminal misconduct by a public servant) of the Prevention of Corruption Act (PCA), Indian Penal Code (IPC), and Prohibition of Benami Transaction and Land Grabbing Acts. Under the PC Act, the Lokayukta Police are investigating whether there was any criminal intent (mens rea) behind the allotment of premium sites worth around ₹ 56 crore to Parvathi at Vijayanagar, an upscale locality in Mysuru, in 2022 for 3.16 acres of land acquired from her by MUDA at Kesare village in Mysuru, which was worth around ₹ 3.25 lakh.

“Under the PC Act, the Lokayukta Police are probing whether there was any conspiracy to wield influence (by the accused) to get the premium sites allotted and whether they were the recipients of any illegal gratification,” said sources. The ED, which has launched an investigation into the alleged scam based on the FIR registered by the Lokayukta Police, unearthed several violations, including alleged benami and other illegal transactions. During the investigation, it was found that 3.16 acres of land was reportedly denotified and converted illegally.

The land parcel was allegedly transferred to Siddaramaiah's brother-in-law Mallikarjun Swamy in 2005 and he reportedly gifted it to Parvathi in 2010. Since the land was acquired by MUDA to develop a layout, Parvathi was allotted sites in Vijayanagar with higher circle rates in violation of norms. Swamy and land owner Devaraju have been named as the third and fourth accused in the FIR, which was registered on September 27, 2024, by the Lokayukta SP Mysuru, on the direction of the special court for elected representatives in Bengaluru, which took cognisance of a complaint filed by RTI activist Snehmaya Krishna. The latter has named Siddaramaiah as the prime accused and his wife as the second accused.

India a major pole for global economy, says S'pore prez

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bhubaneswar

PRESIDENT of Singapore Tharman Shanmugaratnam on Saturday said India is emerging as a major pole for the global economy and poised to move up the ladder due to its demographics, development process and significant potential as an export economy.

Interacting with the media during his visit here, Tharman said, in a multi-polar world, India aspires to be a pole in its own right, “that’s true geopolitically and also economically.”

Tharman said India and Singapore are now on a new plane of cooperation. “India is a nation that we would like to collaborate with,” he said wrapping up his two-day visit to Odisha with a visit to Bharat Biotech vaccine manufacturing unit in Bhubaneswar. Semiconductor ecosystem, skill infrastructure and sustainability are major priority sectors between the two nations but connectivity is another area of focus too. During his meetings with the leadership in India, he said it came out clearly there is keenness to expand the air services agreement that benefits both the economies. “It was revised about 10 years ago but we are now at the 10-year point to look at the next 10 years. Aviation as a tool has potential for India to emerge as a player in the maintenance, repair and overhaul (MRO) business,” he said. Prime Minister Narendra Modi had raised it during his September visit to Singapore which has companies ranked as global leaders.

Talking about the strong bilateral relations between the countries, President Tharman said it is not just about specific industries but about working on projects that continue to build trust between the two countries. “Trust is in short supply internationally, and Singapore and India can show how it is possible to build trust in today’s world, even in today’s uncertain and fractious world,” he said.

Guv's actions strengthen Dravidian politics: CM

“OUR legal wing must counter these tactics and defend the Constitution and democracy,” Stalin added.

He further said that it was beneficial for the Dravidian ideology and for exposing the BJP to have RN Ravi continue as governor of TN. Stalin said that while the governor's actions were anti-federal and tried to falsely portray the DMK as anti-constitutional, his conduct inadvertently highlighted the relevance of Dravidian policies and strengthened the party's commitment to state autonomy.

Stalin also lauded the contributions of the legal wing in defending the party's ideals and championing the welfare of the people. “This wing has played a crucial role in defending our activists and advancing social justice,” Stalin said.

He highlighted the key legal battles fought by the DMK's legal wing including cases against the Citizenship Amendment Act (CAA), the farm laws, and NEET. “It was our legal wing that ensured the 27% reservation for OBCs in medical education and recovered land for the Kalaingar Centenary Park. The wing's achievements, including additional 5,500 medical seats annually for TN, stand testament to our commitment to social justice,” he said.

THE state government to restore waterbodies and construct new channels to ensure free flow of water; K Balasubramani, state secretary, TN Vivasayi Sangam. R Subash, president, Siruvayalam Water Users Association in Ranipet, said, “While water users associations have elected representatives, no funds are being allocated to them. Most tanks haven't been desilted for years, reducing their storage capacity. The government must prioritise rejuvenation of these tanks.”

“We have submitted proposals to the state government. Allocation of funds for desilting works is expected in the next state budget,” the senior WRD official added.
